

JOB POSTING FOR PRE-SERVICE EDUCATION WORKSHOP LEADER - How to Teach a Fashion Lab

(2 Positions)- The timeframe for this position is January 15 - Feb 27.

Job Description:

OFSHEEA is seeking two secondary OCTs to work collaboratively with other team members to plan and create materials and present a virtual workshop on How to Teach a Fashion Lab to pre-service family studies teacher candidates. The workshop will occur Saturday February 20, 2021 from 10am - 3pm.

Qualifications and Skills for the Job:

- Possess a current Ontario Certificate of Qualification with teaching qualifications in family studies, individual and society, or social science
- Must be a current member of OFSHEEA
- Experience in the last 3 years teaching family studies or social science courses in the Social Science and Humanities Curriculum (edition 2013)
- Experience in teaching the fashion courses, especially teaching hands-on clothing labs and proper hand and machine sewing skills
- Demonstrated ability to create engaging, creative, demonstrations and lessons.
- Excellent written communication skills (clarity, proper spelling and grammar).
- Strong presentation skills in a virtual environment.

Duties of the Job:

The chosen candidate will be responsible for working with the team to plan and create workshop materials and present on February 20, 2021 (10am - 3pm) using Zoom. The successful candidate will work with the team to create a resource package for participants including lab planning and procedures, safety instruction, and assessment tools. Upon completion of the workshop the chosen candidate will provide feedback to OFSHEEA about the workshop.

The successful candidate must have access and ability to use Zoom to attend planning meetings and present the workshop.

All materials created/shared must clearly connect to Ontario Ministry of Education curriculum and guidelines (i.e. Growing Success/Learning for All). Lesson materials will also become the property of OFSHEEA

Application Process

Please e-mail the attached completed application form and a current resume C/O Michelyn Gallant at: ofsheea@ofsheea.ca by 5 PM on Monday January 11, 2021.

(Successful applicants will be notified by Friday January 15th and applicants will have to confirm their interest and return the signed contract by noon on Monday January 18 to Michelyn Gallant at ofsheea@ofsheea.ca)

Remuneration: An honorarium of $350 plus expenses to a maximum of $25 will be reimbursed for necessary supplies required to do the lesson.

Please note there will be a mandatory project organization virtual meeting during the week of January 18th. More information will follow with the job notification if you are chosen as a workshop leader.

APPLICATION FORM PRE-SERVICE EDUCATION WORKSHOP LEADER - How to Teach a Fashion Lab

Applicant Name	Contact Email	Contact Phone #	OCT Registration #
Employer [School Board and address]		Current School or Site of Employment
Share your experiences in teaching clothing/fashion courses? Which courses have you taught? What experience do you have in offering the practical components (labs) within these courses?
State any previous experience you have with: workshop development, workshop presentations (both face to face and virtual), curriculum writing and education resource development.
Why do you believe that you are the best person for the job? (describe job skills that apply to the position):

